

WAPOR Sessions

October 5

18:00-18:30 Welcome

18:30-19:30 WAPOR Member Business Meeting

All Day

Poster Session

Mi Casa es su Casa? Social Capital and Sense of Neighborhood Belonging among Qatari Nationals

Semsia Al-Ali Mustafa (Qatar University (Social and Economic Survey Research Institute))

Values and Constitutions

Guillermo Burr (ChileCompra)

Implementation of establishment surveys in new contexts: process and lessons from a pilot in the Northern Triangle Countries Abstract

Andrea Estrella (IMPAQ International)

Civic Engagement: The 'Bobi wine' social media Effect

Juma Kasadha (City University of Hong Kong)

World Values Survey 1981-2020: Cross-National Findings on Values, Norms and Beliefs Worldwide

Kseniya Kizilova (World Values Survey Association)

Challenges to generate unique, anonymous participant codes for a longitudinal study among illiterate participants in a rural Sierra Leone

Hanna Luetke Lanfer (University of Erfurt)

The Surveys on the Japanese National Character: Overview of Results of the last 30 years

Tadahiko Maeda (The Institute of Statistical Mathematics)

Challenges of Comparative Research in Fragile and Conflict-Affected Countries: The World Bank Experience

Svetlana Markova (The World Bank)

Online Echo chambers and opinion polarization about Algerian presidential election 2019: did the Facebook news and information divide the Algerians?

TARIQ SAIDI (University of khenchela)

Nepal Household Risk and Vulnerability Survey: A Case Study in Improving Retention Rates in Panel Surveys

Jui Shrestha (Independent Consultant)

Roma or Gypsy: The Impact of a Vocabulary Change on Attitudes Towards a Prejudice-Hit Minority
Raluca Toma (Median Research Centre)

The power of sustainable social media marketing and public engagement: An empirical study on travel-related co-creation behavior

Farzana Sharmin (Doctoral Student, School of Media and Communication, Shanghai Jiao Tong University, China)

Covering of Hong Kong Anti-ELAB Movement and Public Opinion in Taiwan

FRANCIS YIN (GUANGXI NORMAL UNIVERSITY)

Research on the Relationships between the Emergence of Public Opinion on Social Media Platforms and the Influences of Mainstream Media Interpretation Framework

Dai Yuanchu (Shandong University, China)

The virtual mobilization of the Algerian Hirak on Facebook

Mebarek Zouda (University of Guelma)

October 6

14:00-15:00 Session 1.1: Cross-cultural Survey Research

ASSESSING THE QUALITY OF TRANSLATIONS IN COMPARATIVE CROSS-NATIONAL SURVEYS

Anna Andreenkova (CESSI (Institute for comparative social research))

What do Democracy Indices Really Measure?

Claire Durand (Université de Montréal)

Who are “most people”? Respondents’ interpretations of social generalized trust question

Inga Gaizauskaite (Lithuanian Social Research Centre)

Effect of Presence of Others on Sexual Attitudes, Marital Satisfaction, and Happiness in Korea and the United States

Jibum Kim (Sungkyunkwan University)

Cross-country studies as a factor in ensuring the successful implementation of migration policy

Elena Mikhaylova (VCIOM (Russian Public Opinion Research Center))

Parental background as a factor of gender-role attitudes across Europe

Natalia Soboleva (Laboratory for Comparative Social Research Higher School of Economics)

Sensitivity of the standard SEM fit indices to measurement non-invariance with categorical data, many groups and the Wu-Estabrook identification approach.

Boris Sokolov (Hugher School of Economics)

14:00-15:00 Session 2.1: Methodology: Big Data and Digitalization

Layout and Device Effects on Breakoff Rates in Smartphone Surveys: A Systematic Review and a Meta-Analysis

Mirjan Schulz (GESIS - Leibniz Institute for the Social Sciences)

Winning! Adjudication and Dialogue in Social Media

Ernesto Calvo (University of Maryland)

Manufactured Buzz: Exploring Astroturfing in Anti-vaping Campaigns on Twitter

Miao Feng (NORC at the University of Chicago)

The differential impacts of social network sites and instant messaging on general trust: A study of Hong Kong

Xiang Meng (City University of Hong Kong)

Relationship Between Google Searches and Survey Responses: Cross-National Analyses on the Aggregate and Individual Levels

Anna Turner (Polish Academy of Sciences)

The effect of survey mode on inferences about attitudes and voting behaviour: comparing online to face-to-face survey data in six European countries

Lea Heyne (Institute of Social Sciences, University of Lisbon)

Methodological Keys for Accurate Voting Estimates

Sara Morais (GAD3)

14:00-15:00 Session 3.1: News media and public opinion

How can expert surveys help make sense of political news media cross nationally and over time. An assessment of the European Media Systems Survey

Marina Popescu (MRC - Median Research Centre)

Desire to Explain Agenda-Setting Effects: Validation of the New Need for Orientation

Seohyun An (Ewha Womans University)

Narratives about safety, journalistic practice, and the formation of public opinion

Marta Milena Barrios (Universidad del Norte)

Online hate speech against ethnic minorities. The case of Roma people in Romania

Raluca Buturoiu (SNSPA)

Tweeting Rationale for Protracted Conflict: Analysis of Public Opinion, Public Policy and Leading Mass Media Coverage of the U.S./Iran Dispute

Thomas Christie (The University of Texas at Arlington)

Media Polls in Japan: A Topical Analysis, 1989-2019

Christian Collet (International Christian University)

A New Age of Public Opinion: Social Media and its Impact on Political Behaviour in India

Neha Simlai (Social and Political Research Foundation)

14:00-15:00 Session 4.1: Political behaviour and survey research

The Aggregate Vote in Buenos Aires Province Revisited: Vote for Governor in 2019

Jorge Jorrot (Instituto Gino Germani, Universidad de Buenos Aires (UBA); CONICET)

Non-Probability Sampling: Current Online Methods and Techniques in the Pre-1950s

Christopher Adams (St. Paul's College, University of Manitoba)

How Externalities can cause significant variations between polls and actual results for elections

Toba Ajiboye (Pollit Analytics Limited)

Age-Period-Cohort Analysis of Emancipative Values in Russia

Anna Almakaeva (National Research University Higher School of Economics)

Analysis of the underestimation of religious political parties in the Arab World (A case study of the electability of the Islamic Resistance Movement – Hamas among Palestinians)

Nader Said-Foqahaa (Arab World for Research & Development AWRAD)

The Invisible ‘Deplorables’: Evidence of Hidden Trump Supporters in 2016 Pre-election Polls

Tamas Bodor (University of Wisconsin - Stevens Point)

Who Protests? Ideological dimensions and protest in Latin America

Elias Chavarria-Mora (University of Pittsburgh)

14:00-15:00 Session 5.1: New sources of information on public opinion

Mobile instant messaging services and political communication in the local arena. Citizens’ perception on the use of WhatsApp by the City Councils in Spain

Laura Alonso-Muñoz (Universitat Jaume I de Castelló)

The process of political socialization through social networks among Brazilian youth

Ana Julia Bonzanini Bernardi (Federal University of Rio Grande do Sul (UFRGS))

Social Media, Political Efficacy, and the Effectiveness of Collective Action

Shelley Boulianne (MacEwan U)

Examining public opinion about a contentious social issue through content analysis of online discussion forums

Benjamin Detenber (Nanyang Technological University)

Real needs and authentic questions - How social media intelligence can contribute to public opinion research

Daniel Fazekas (Gallup International)

Vaccine confidence and the threat from social media

johnny heald (ORB International)

Real Emotions, False Stories. Understanding Viralisation of Fake News in the Post-Truth Era

Loredana Radu (National University for Political Studies and Public Administration)

14:00-15:00 Session 6.1: Political behaviour and survey research

Values, archetypes, aspirations and lifestyle preferences of Postmaterialists and Authoritarians across countries

Martijn Lampert (Glocalities International)

NEW TECHNOLOGIES, OLD BEHAVIORS: FAKE NEWS, MASSIVE MESSAGES DISTRIBUTION AND HATE SPEECH AGAINST WOMEN IN BRAZILIAN POLITICS

Luiza Machado de Oliveira Menezes (Universidade Federal de Minas Gerais - UFMG)

Determinants of referendums legitimacy in Poland and Portugal

Pedro Magalhaes (University of Lisbon)

Authoritarian Legacies on Political Discussion

Gerardo Maldonado (CIDE)

A Meta-Analysis of Selective Exposure Effects on Political Polarization: A Contribution to the Replication Debate in Public Opinion Research

Lisa Reuther (TU Dresden)

Past Vote Weighting in Pre-Election Polls Under Different Conditions of Electoral Volatility

Matous Pilnacek (Institute of Sociology of the Czech Academy of Sciences)

Experience of electoral administration, perception of election quality and trust in democratic institutions in Nigeria – comparing survey findings on the 2007, 2015 and 2019 elections.

Rakesh Sharma (International Foundation for Electoral Systems)

15:00-15:30 Coffee Break

15:30-16:30 Session 7.1: public opinion and policymaking

Responsive to whom? Party ideology and income-group preferences on redistributive policies

Xavier Romero-Vidal (Leuphana University)

Examining relationship between government disaster assistance programs and its effect on trust in government

Jui Shrestha (Independent Consultant)

Public opinion in contemporary Portuguese foreign policy: actors, movements, and practices

Pedro Ponte e Sousa (FCSH-UNL (Nova University of Lisbon, Faculty of Social Sciences and Humanities) & IPRI (Portuguese Institute of International Relations))

The Aggregation of East-West Differences in Policy Demand via European Elections and their Impact on the Ideological Coherence of Party Groups in the European Parliament

Gábor Tóka (Central European University)

Immigration opinions and their origins: How European citizens respond to their environments (1980-2017)

Steven Van Hauwaert (University of Surrey)

Immigration as a thermostat? Public opinion and immigration policy across Western Europe (1980s – 2017)

Steven Van Hauwaert (University of Surrey)

Influencing the others: Presumed media influence on political lay persons vs. professionals as a predictor for strategic public communication during policy making

Christina Viehmann (U of Mainz)

15:30-16:30 Session 8.1: Panel, longitudinal and national monitoring surveys in policymaking

Panel Surveys Informing Policy For National & Sub-National Governments in East Africa

Maggie Ireri (TIFA Research)

Pilot study - building a probabilistic panel in France, Germany and Greece

Tanja Kimova (Kantar)

The determinants of immigrants' German language acquisition over time

Verena Ortmanns (GESIS-Leibniz Institute for the Social Sciences)

The evolution of factors in the Social Capital of Colombia, the measurement with the Barometer of Social Capital (Barcas): 2011-2017 in a 20-year perspective (I)

John Sudarsky (Contrial)

BUILDING KANTAR'S 'PUBLIC VOICE' PANEL IN THE UK

Joel Williams (Kantar)

Using Propensity Score Matching to Estimate the Mixed-Mode Effects of a Panel Survey

Su-hao Tu (Center for Survey Research, RCHSS, Academia Sinica)

Activity approach for studies of mass behavior – improving survey techniques

Andrei Veikher (NRU HSE RUSSIA)

15:30-16:30 Session 9.1: Public opinion and policymaking

A risky strategy: Instrumentalizing public opinion in societal decision making

Christina Viehmann (U of Mainz)

Subnational Dynamics of Public Support for the Environment in an Emerging Democracy

Sergio Wals (University of Nebraska)

“Bad Romance:” Explaining Congressman-Party Ideological Distance in Latin American Legislatures
Scott Morgenstern (University of Pittsburgh)

Informal Economic Behavior and Authoritarian Regime Instability
Wenfang Tang (HKUST)

Motivated Reasoning and the Evaluation of Polls
Michael Traugott (University of Michigan)

Which interests? An experimental study of gender differences in political interest
Gema Garcia-Albacete (Universidad Carlos III de Madrid)

Populist attitudes and preferences for direct democracy
Nina Wiesehomeier (School of Global & Public Affairs, IE University)

15:30-16:30 Session 10.1: Political behaviour and survey research

The Donbass Question: Explicating the Differences in Values and Identity Underlying Intergroup Conflict in Ukraine
Erik Nisbet (The Ohio State University)

Invisible Trends: Confidence in Democracy at the Sub-National Level
Andrew Parkin (Environics Institute for Survey Research)

New Democracy and Public Opinion Research: A Study of Survey of Nepali People
Uddhab Prasad Pyakurel (School of Arts, Kathmandu University)

Networked Politics: Surveying the Relationship between Affective Attitude towards Facebook Use and Political Attitudes of Young Female Adults
Azmat Rasul (Zayed University, Abu Dhabi Campus)

Do presidential debates matter? Results from a field experiment in Argentina
Augusto Reina (Universidad de Buenos Aires)

Cultural Backlash or Period Effects: The New Right in Brazil
Ednaldo Ribeiro (State University of Maringa/Federal University of Parana)

Is Populism Here to Stay? Voters for Populist Parties and Human Values in European Democracies
Hugo Marcos-Marne (University of St.Gallen)

15:30-16:30 Session 11.1: New sources of information on public opinion, news media and political behaviour

Consent and compliance to a passive collection of financial data in the UAS panel
Alexandra Brown Breslin (University of Maryland)

Setting up an online probability-based panel in Chile

Ricardo Gonzalez (Universidad Adolfo Ibáñez)

Social Media Social Capital and Political Consumerism

Rebecca Scheffauer (University of Vienna)

Tricky times: Mediatisation of public opinion research

George Nyabuga (University of Nairobi)

Trigger or Placebo of News Seeking? Incidental Exposure to News on Facebook, News-Finds-Me Perception, and Feeling of Being Informed

Chang Sup Park (University at Albany, State University of New York)

Exploring the public opinion climate in Egypt: From Watchdog to Dogwatch

Ibrahim Saleh (Nile University in Egypt)

Global News Flow in G-20: Economic and Political Factors of Media Attention

Anton Kazun (Higher School of Economics)

15:30-16:30 Session 12.1: New technologies and national surveys

The Pros and Cons of Applying CAPI to New and Trend F2F Public Opinion Surveys in Developing Countries

David Jodice (D3 Systems, Inc.)

Does Feedback from Activity Trackers influence Physical Activity? Evidence from a Randomized Controlled Trial

Arie Kapteyn (Center for Economic and Social Research, USC)

Can Online Panels Produce Representative Samples for Surveys?

Mansour Fahimi (Ipsos)

Comparative Implications of Migrating from Phone to Online as Part of a Multinational Project

Patrick Moynihan (Pew Research Center)

Doing the same with less. Face-to-face and panel surveys results in 2019 Portuguese elections.

Ricardo F. Reis (Universidade Católica Portuguesa, CESOP)

THE DATA PROTECTION OFFICER

Juan Francisco Rodríguez Ayuso (Universidad Internacional de La Rioja)

The Mobile Phone Survey in China

Weidong Wang (Renmin University of China)

16:30-17:00 Coffee Break

17:00-18:30 Panel 252: Big data and new methodologies

Big Data and New Methodologies: Public Perception and Attitudes towards Migration

Carlos Arcila Calderón (University of Salamanca)

Worth A Thousand Words? How Data Visualization Design Choices Matter for Attitudes Towards Refugees in Great Britain

William L. Allen (University of Oxford)

Detecting hate speech against migrants and refugees on Twitter

Javier J. Amores (University of Salamanca)

Hate speech characterization and topic modelling of Twitter discourse around Vox

Patricia Sánchez-Holgado (University of Salamanca)

Remote sensing application in the analysis and understanding of migration trends

Antonio Tabasco Cabezas (GMV Innovating Solutions)

Verbal rejection as a basis for hate speech. Analysis of Twitter discussion about immigrants in Spanish

María Belén Valdez-Apolo (University of Salamanca)

17:00-18:30 Panel 209: Public opinion research

Challenges of public opinion research, the rise of the right-wing, the decline of democracy, and the WVS Brazil experience: a laboratory for other countries?

Sofia Vizcarra (Universidade Federal do Rio Grande do Sul - UFRGS)

How to study Fake News from a public opinion perspective: insights from the 7th wave of WVS Brazil

Henrique Castro (Universidade Federal do Rio Grande do Sul - UFRGS)

Effects of economic and political crisis on the rise of conservatism and the far-right.

Jéssica Duarte (Universidade Federal do Rio Grande do Sul)

Brazilian political culture: Bolsonaro's election and vote behavior

Débora Santos (Federal University of Rio Grande do Sul)

WVS Brazil 7th wave - challenges, innovations and opportunities in national public opinion research

Sofia Vizcarra Castillo (Universidade Federal do Rio Grande do Sul)

17:00-18:30 Panel 176: Political behaviour

Emerging trends in electoral research - Kantar Election Team panel

Nicolas Bécuwe (Kantar)

Populist attitudes and the Persistence of Misinformation: Experimental Evidence from Spain

Nina Wiesehomeier (1974)

Exit Polls in Germany 2019

Michael Kunert (Infratest dimap)

Understanding the rise of the League in Italy

Davide Monaco (University of Manchester)

Dealing with respondents that do not express a firm preference in political opinion polls

Luke Taylor (Kantar)

Speaking and Supporting Populism: A Survey Experiment

Kirk Hawkins (Brigham Young University)

19:00-20:00 WAPOR National Representatives Meeting

October 7

14:00-15:00 Session 1.2: Challenges of comparative research

Towards better quality data collection in multi-country face to face surveys in difficult to survey countries

Jamie Burnett (Kantar)

Experimental Survey of Biotech Attitudes in Nigeria, Kenya, Ethiopia, and Bangladesh.

Yuliya Dudaronak (ORB International)

Interviewing migrants

Yves Fradier (KANTAR)

Social Aspects of Growth in North Africa: Between Progress and Expectations - Towards an Efficient SDGs Measurement

Aomar Ibourk (Cadi Ayyad University of Marrakesh and Policy Center for the New South)

A critical review of the UN75 Global surveys presented to the 2020 UN General Assembly

Colin Irwin (University of Liverpool)

Survey research on the integration of ethnic and migrant minorities (EMMs) across Europe: Identifying research strengths and gaps with the survey metadata of the EMM Survey Registry

Laura Morales (Sciences Po)

Using Latent Class Analysis for testing the equivalence of multi-item scales for data from different survey programs. The example of National Identity types.

Markus Quandt (GESIS)

14:00-15:00 Session 2.2: Methodological Challenges in Survey Research

How can we ensure quality in face-to-face surveys?

Yulia Baskakova (Langer Research Associates)

Rostering household members for sample selection in the General Social Survey

Rene Bautista (NORC)

Is it worth it? Screened mobile sample for IVR surveys in developing countries - The cases of Sri Lanka and Ecuador

Carsten Broich (Sample Solutions BV)

An evaluation of variability in accuracy, coverage and efficiency of “pulsing” sample for European CATI surveys from 2019 to 2020

Alexandra Castillo (Pew Research Center)

Obstacles to applying sample quality metrics to large-scale cross-national survey projects

Piotr Cichocki (Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznan)

Single item non-response and social desirability bias across countries

Sanne Lund Clement (Aalborg University)

COMPARISON OF TWO WITHIN-HOUSEHOLD SAMPLING SELECTION METHODS. KISH GRID VS. LAST BIRTHDAY

Vidal Díaz de Rada (Public University of Navarre)

14:00-15:00 Session 3.2: News media and public opinion

Institutional Quality and the Fight of the G20 Leaders For the International Agenda in Print Media

Anastasia Kazun (Higher School of Economics)

Who Trusts the Media More? Effects of Evaluations of Journalists' Performance on Media Trust and the Moderating Role of the News Finds Me Perception

Aytalina Kulichkina (University of Vienna)

News media use and a militaristic attitude: Evidence from Indian and Pakistani citizens

Muhammad Masood (City University of Hong Kong)

Deliberative Pubic Discourse Through Civic Self-Affirmation: Testing a psychological intervention to reduce hostile media perceptions

Cornelia Mothes (TU Dresden)

Identities that divide, identities that unite: The effect of media portrayals of intergroup dynamics involving Muslims on views on Islam and orientations toward Muslims

Rico Neumann (University of Washington)

Does corruption corrupt? The effects of mediated exposure to corruption

Israel Waismel Manor (University of Haifa)

Responsibility for health: Differences between liberal and conservative media

Annemarie Wiedicke (University of Erfurt)

14:00-15:00 Session 4.2: Political behaviour and survey research

Measuring authoritarianism in Brazil using child-rearing values

Fabricio M Fialho (Cardiff University)

The gender gap in personal political efficacy in Europe

Marta Fraile (CSIC (IPP))

Compulsory Voting, Spoiled Votes and Social Desirability Bias

Alessandro Freire (Universidade de Brasília)

Patriotism Grown under Autocracy? A Cross-National Study on Political Regime and National Pride
Miaoaofang Guan (Institute of International Relations, University of Sao Paulo)

The Shift towards a Modern Gender Gap in Political Ideology and Female Labour Force Participation: Cross-regional evidence from Spain during 1993-2019
Ipek Ilkcaracan (Istanbul Technical University (ITU))

What are the Major Drivers of Social Distancing in the Times of International Conflict: Cases of Poland and Russia.
Olga Kamenchuk (The Ohio State University)

15:30-16:30 Session 5.2: New sources of information on public opinion

Twitter as a barometer of sentiment map on elections: the case of the '18 Brazilian campaign
RAPHAEL SOUZA (University of Brasilia - UnB)

Testing the feasibility of using Facebook and Instagram as convenience sample sources
Luke Taylor (Kantar)

Platforms didn't matters: sharing misinformation in Indonesia 2019 elections
Kunto Adi Wibowo (Universitas Padjadjaran)

Evaluating the Effects of Media Literacy on Twitter Propaganda Bots Detection
Yin Wu (University of Wisconsin-Madison)

Keeping up with the world via Twitter -- The influence of language and systemic factors on mentioned countries
Denis Wu (Boston University)

Opinion Leadership, Offline and Online: A Comparison of Survey vs. Twitter Data
Marko Skoric (City University of Hong Kong)

Talking with Machines: Chatbots and AI as powerful insights tools.
João Pedro Calixto (On The Go)

15:00-15:30 Coffee Break

15:30-16:30 Session 5.2: New sources of information on public opinion

How people are happy with religious trip? Hajj Satisfaction Index – Jordanian Pilgrims
Samir Abu Rumman (World of Opinions)

Evaluation of media Impact on people's attitude of Public Supervision toward the "Enjoining good and forbidding wrong"

Abdolhossein Alimadadi (Sidra)

Should we ask about ethnicity in the Census? Data form the decision process in Portugal.

João H. C. António (Universidade Católica Portuguesa, CESOP)

THE PARADOX OF HAPPINESS IN LATIN AMERICA

Eduardo Bericat (University of Seville)

Post-Fact, Post-Scientific Inquiry? Belief in Conspiracy Theories and Public Attitudes towards Science in the U.S.

peter achterberg (Tilburg University)

How the "Appearance of Corruption" and Money in Politics Shape U.S. Public Opinion and Trust in Government

Leah Ferentinos (Yale Law School)

Towards Cultural Sensitivity in Societal Development Paradigms and Measures

Kuba Kryś (Polish Academy of Sciences, Institute of Psychology)

15:30-16:30 Session 7.2: Public opinion and policymaking

2019/2020 Israeli Electoral Digital Campaigns – Pits and Falls

Sharon Haleva-Amir (Bar Ilan University)

Contributions of an online community to design a website about pregnancy and early life, created by the French National Public Health Agency.

Houzelle Nathalie (French National Public Health Agency)

Now more than ever! Public opinion as a mobilization factor in wage disputes

Marlene Schaaf (Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz)

La construcción de género de las mujeres excombatientes de la carmelita, putumayo- Colombia.

Monica Lendra Vargas (Estudiante)

Close Enough for Survey Work? Testing GPS accuracy and precision for mobile data collection in the developing world

Jonathan Forney (Forcier Consulting)

Survey Measurement Quality Metanalysis Based on the Data from ISSP 1985-2015 and CSES 1996-2016

Adam Rybak (Faculty of Sociology, Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznan, Poland)

Interactive Network Graphs Online to Analyze Surveys

Modesto Escobar (Universidad de Salamanca)

15:30-16:30 Session 9.2: Public opinion and Survey research

Shifting Sands: South African Opinions after 25 years of ANC rule

Mari Harris (Ipsos)

Examining the Contexts of Intergroup Contact: Native-Born Citizens and their Varied Contact with Non-EU Foreigners

Daniel Herda (Merrimack College)

Fertility Transitions: Implications for Future Demographic Trends in the Arab Gulf States

Noora Lari (Qatar University)

Determinants of Democratic Legitimacy in South Asia: Politics, Integrity or Quality of Governance?

Md Akram Hossain (University of Bergen)

Perceptions of Political Polarization in Mexico

Alejandro Moreno (ITAM Mexico)

BECAUSE THE RESPONSE SCALE FORMAT IS IMPORTANT: LOOKING FOR MEASUREMENT ACCURACY

Ana Muñoz van den Eynde (CIEMAT)

National Culture, Institutional Trust, and Freedom to Publish Public Opinion Research

Timothy Johnson (University of Illinois at Chicago)

15:30-16:30 Session 10.2: Political behaviour and survey research

Survey Participation as a Form of Civic and Social Engagement

Henning Silber (GESIS - Leibniz Institute for the Social Sciences)

Affective polarization and the vote for the parties at the extremes: the case of Chile and Spain

Mariano Torcal (UPF)

Populist radical right parties and authoritarian legacies in Chile and Spain: addressing the vote for Vox and Acción Republicana

Lisa Zanotti (Griffith University)

What Manipulates National Favorability and Country Image in the Case of Russia-US Relations?

Olga Kamenchuk (The Ohio State University)

Democratic decay, populism and simplism: The case of Poland

Radoslaw Markowski (SWPS University of Social Sciences and Humanities, Warsaw)

Voting VOX in Spain: Change of Attitudes or Transfers Based on Issue Voting?

Cristina Moreno (Universidad de Murcia)

Who trust? The mediating role of the perception of corruption between civic knowledge and institutional trust

Benjamín Muñoz Rojas (Centre for Social Conflict and Cohesion Studies)

15:30-16:30 Session 11.2: Cross-cultural Survey Research

The Foundation of European identity: civic versus cultural principles

Malina Voicu (Research Institute for quality of Life, Romanian Academy)

Advantages and challenges of conducting IVR electoral surveys: current international practices and their correlation with present Russian realities

Vladimir Zvonovsky (Samara State University of Economics)

Cost and Production Efficiency in Different Modes: A Comparison of Cellphone, Landline, and Web-Based Survey in Taiwan

Hung-Chia Chen (Center for Survey Research, RCHSS, Academic Sinica)

The Changing Religious Landscape of America (1972-2018) in Comparative Perspective

Tom W Smith (NORC)

Using survey data to measure humanitarian proximity of post-Soviet countries

Igor Zadorin (Zircon)

Evaluating the Demographic and Health Surveys mode switch from PAPI to CAPI: An experiment from Turkey

Tugba Adali (Hacettepe University Institute of Population Studies)

Quality control of international CATI surveys

Yulia Baskakova (Langer Research Associates)

16:30-17:00 Coffee Break

17:00-18:30 Panel 129: Part I: Challenges for comparative research

World Values Survey 1981-2020: Cross-National Findings on Values, Norms and Beliefs Worldwide

Marita Carballo (Voices Research and Consultancy)

Tolerance of Asians for Unwanted Neighbors

Gerardo Sandoval (Social Weather Stations (SWS))

Attitudes toward immigrants: The Role of national identity and religious belonging

Olga Iakimova (Ural Federal University)

Attitude and perceptions towards Homosexuality in India: What data shows

Yashwant Deshmukh (CVoter International)

Gender Equality and Post-materialist Values as Determinants of employment in Central Asian countries

Tatiana Karabchuk (UAE University)

Values of urban and rural Mongolians

Tsetsenbileg Tseveen (Academy of Sciences of Mongolia, Institute of Philosophy y)

17:00-18:30 Panel 356: Challenges of comparative research

An examination of the influence of institutions on social attitudes across the globe through the lenses of ISSP

Rene Bautista (NORC)

Egg or chicken? How does the policy shape social attitudes towards government

Francisco Abundis Luna (Parametría)

On strong ties and interpersonal trust: the moderating role of institutions in comparative perspective

Ricardo Gonzalez (Universidad Adolfo Ibáñez)

Mapping Individual and Cross-Cultural Differences in Democratic Political Efficacy

Vaidas Morkevicius (Kaunas University of Technology)

Resources and strains in family networks and mental health: An exploratory study on the role of economic inequality in a comparative perspective

Marlene Sapin (FORS & LIVES, University of Lausanne, Switzerland)

India: Through the prism of ISSP Modules

Gaura Shukla (CVoter International)

17:00-18:30 Panel 266: Political behaviour

Policy Issues, Political Behavior, and the Challenges and Prospects of Longitudinal Survey Methods: Applications of the Polish Panel Survey POLPAN, 1988 – 2018

Marcin Zielinski (Institute of Philosophy and Sociology, Polish Academy of Sciences)

Assessing Change in Individuals' Political Voice and Democratic Commitment in Poland, 2013 - 2018

Joshua Dubrow (The Institute of Philosophy and Sociology, and CONSIRT at the Ohio State University and the Polish Academy of Sciences)

Who wins and who loses on the Polish labour market? Using POLPAN data to study the determinants and outcomes of precarious employment careers

Anna Kiersztyn (Institute of Sociology, University of Warsaw)

Electoral volatility – what can we learn from panel data?

Michal Kotnarowski (Institute of Philosophy and Sociology, Polish Academy of Sciences)

Stability and Change in Individual Support for Right-Wing Parties in Poland, 1993–2018

Marcin Slarzynski (The Institute of Philosophy and Sociology, and CONSIRT at the Ohio State University and the Polish Academy of Sciences)

Weighting data in longitudinal projects and its impact on data comparability

Marcin Zielinski (The Institute of Philosophy and Sociology, Polish Academy of Sciences)

19:00-20:00 WAPOR Award Ceremony

October 8

14:00-15:00 Session 1.3: Survey research application

Misinformation and Disinformation in the Electoral Process: Public Perceptions and Experiences in Nigeria, Tunisia, and Ukraine

Matthew Emery (International Foundation for Electoral Systems)

What the World Thinks, and Why It Matters in Development

sharon felzer (World Bank Group)

Examining Young People's Reading and Viewing Preferences and Their Effects on the Ideas of Friendship and Love: A Western Multinational Survey

Norberto Gonzalez-Gaitano (Pontifical University of the Holy Cross)

Influence of media on exercise political representation in municipal councils and the Departmental Assembly in the Colombian case

Vanessa López Suaza (Universidad Eafit)

Innovative social practices and their dissemination mechanisms

Larisa Pautova (FOM)

Married twice in the last two months? Measuring Monthly Onset of Serious Life Events in the Understanding America Study

Francisco Perez-Arce (Center for Economic and Social Research, University of Southern California)

The Ethnical identity and social change of the Basque Country of Spain

Ana Roncal (University of the Nations)

14:00-15:00 Session 2.3: Public opinion and Survey research

Immigration Population Innumeracy

Hayk Gyuzalyan (Highgate Consultancy)

The Failure of Representation? Mismatched Policy Views between Citizens and Legislators in Latin America

Louis Wilson (University of Pittsburgh)

Explaining Boris' Brexit: the 2019 British General Election

Sir Robert Worcester (Ipsos MORI / King's College London)

Democracy, diversity, education, trust in parliament and protest in Eastern Europe and West Asia 1993-2017.

David Wutchiett (University of Montreal)

Public Perceptions of Ageing in Singapore

Jasmine Yang (Ministry of Communications and Information)

Presidential Approval Rating in Taiwan

Eric Chen-hua Yu (National Chengchi University)

Influence of Incidental News Exposure: Examining the Effects on Cognitive Elaboration and Thorough Information Engagement

Homero Gil de Zúñiga (University of Salamanca and Pennsylvania State University)

14:00-15:00 Session 3.3: News media and public opinion

Cognitive Effects of Exposure to Facebook Status Updates of Friends Living Abroad: Global Cognitive Distance, World-mindedness and Attitudes toward War

Michael Elasmr (Boston University)

Skepticism and cynicism differently predict general trust in the media

Oliver Quiring (JGU Mainz)

Evaluating the Effect of Nationalism and National Identity on Perceived Information Credibility of Sports News between Chinese and Americans

Yin Wu (University of Wisconsin-Madison)

Framing and constructing European identity in Greek post-crisis media discourse

Katerina Diamantaki (Deree-The American College of Greece)

Media and Public Opinion on Indonesia's Jokowi's Presidency

Sukawarsini Djelantik (Parahyangan Catholic University)

15:00-15:30 Coffee Break

15:30-16:30 Session 7.3: Public opinion and Survey research

The role of public opinion surveys in shaping public policy? A case study for Kenya

RAPHAEL MULWA NGAVA (INFOTRAK RESEARCH AND CONSULTING LIMITED)

Perceived Corruption and Political Knowledge: A cross-lagged panel approach

Matías Bargsted (Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile)

The effect of bushfire exposure on views on climate change: Evidence from a hot Australian summer

Nicholas Biddle (Australian National University)

Assessing pre-electoral polls and forecasting elections in Italy

Kenneth Bunker (University of Milan)

Does Knowing Democracy Lead to Loving Democracy? Evidence from A Survey Experiment in Indonesia

Aurelia Nugroho (King's College London)

Assessing the effects of survey method on the estimation of vote intention: The case of the Spanish General Election of November 2019

Patricia Otero-Felipe (University of Burgos)

Improving Estimates in Likely Voter Models: How the Feeling of Duty and the Feeling of Guilt Perform in a Voter Turnout Index?

Matous Pilnacek (Institute of Sociology of the Czech Academy of Sciences)

15:30-16:30 Session 8.3: Political behaviour and survey research

FROM THE BRADY BUNCH TO GILMORE GIRLS: THE EFFECT OF HOUSEHOLD SIZE ON ECONOMIC VOTING

Ignacio Lago (Universitat Pompeu Fabra)

Gender Gap on Policy Issues. A Comparative Analysis of Latin American Publics

Carolina Segovia (Universidad Diego Portales)

The populist vote at the last European Elections: an epiphenomenon or a well-established reality?

Pascal Chelala (Gallup International)

Exit Polls in India: A Thorough Evaluation

Shiv Sehgal (Polstrat Communication)

Cross-National Variation in Political Discussion Network Size and Distribution

William Eveland (Ohio State University)

Transnational ties and political engagement of Arab youth

Elena Sánchez-Montijano (CIDE)

15:30-16:30 Session 9.3: Public opinion and Survey research

Activism and Public Opinion: The Effect of a Gay Pride Parade on Public Opinion regarding LGBT Rights in Israel

Yossi David (Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz)

Religiosity and Voting Behavior: The Different Dimensions of Religiosity in Predicting Political Behavior

Yossi David (Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz)

Comparative GDH: A Case Study of Gross Domestic Happiness (GDH) among People in Thailand and Malaysia

Noppadon Kannika (UCSI POLL RESEARCH CENTRE)

Exploring Mixed Modes in the Estudios Públicos Survey in Chile

Jorge Fábrega (Datavoz y Universidad del Desarrollo)

The Buffer of Support: Do Young Generations Resist the Crises?

Monica Ferrin (University of A Coruña)

The New Shia Revolt in Iraq

Karl Kaltenthaler (University of Akron)

Brazil or The People first? Demand and Supply side of Bolsonaro's populism in Brazil

Aline Burni (Deutsches Institut für Entwicklungspolitik (DIE))

16:30-17:00 Coffee Break

17:00-18:30 Panel 129: Part II: Challenges for comparative research

World Values Survey 1981-2020: Cross-National Findings on Values, Norms and Beliefs Worldwide

Marita Carballo (Voices Research and Consultancy)

Traditional and Digital Forms of Political Capital: A New Theory and its Application

Christian Haerpfer (UAEU)

Climate Change and Concern for the Environment

Juan DIEZ-NICOLAS (Universidad Camilo Jose Cela)

Justification of Political Violence: the role of religion

Pilar Rodríguez-Martínez (University of Almería)

Do differences in Fieldwork Period affect survey comparability? Examining World Values Survey and European Values Study in Romania, 2017 - 2018

Bogdan Voicu (Romanian Academy)

17:00-18:30 Panel 310: Public opinion research and political behaviour

Political Change in Chile: Analysis based on Chilean Longitudinal Social Survey

Matías Bargsted (Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile)

Political and Social Confidence in a Low-Trust Society: Panel Evidence from Chile

Matías Bargsted (Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile)

The role of perceived efficacy in the reciprocal relationship between descriptive norms and collective action participation

Roberto González (Pontifical Catholic University of Chile)

About the relation between offline and online participation: longitudinal evidence from Chile.

Daniel Miranda (Centre for Conflict and Cohesion Studies)

The Social Bases of Frente Amplio: involved but distrustful

Alejandro Plaza (Centre for Conflict and Cohesion Studies)

17:00-18:30 Panel 32: Cross-National Perspectives on Political Polarization

Cross-National Perspectives on Political Polarization: The View from the Comparative National Elections Project

Paul Beck (Ohio State University)

The Foundations of Interpersonal Political Discussion

Paul Beck (Ohio State University)

Extremism, Informational Environments, and Support for Democracy

Pedro Magalhães (University of Lisbon)

Splitters, Switchers and Defectors: Sources of Increasing Voter Fluidity in South Africa

Robert Mattes (University of Strathclyde)

Perceptions of Bias, Political Polarization and Mobilization

Hernando Rojas (University of Wisconsin - Madison)

19:00-20:00 Joint Plenary: “How Violence Shapes Public Opinion for Generations.”

Key Speaker: Prof. Noam Lupu (Vanderbilt University. Associate Director de LAPOP)

WAPOR Sessions

October 5

18:00-18:30 Welcome

18:30-19:30 WAPOR Member Business Meeting

All Day

Poster Session

October 6

14:00-15:00 Session 1.1: Cross-cultural Survey Research

14:00-15:00 Session 2.1: Methodology: Big Data and Digitalization

14:00-15:00 Session 3.1: News media and public opinion

14:00-15:00 Session 4.1: Political behaviour and survey research

14:00-15:00 Session 5.1: New sources of information on public opinion

14:00-15:00 Session 6.1: Political behaviour and survey research

15:00-15:30 Coffee Break

15:30-16:30 Session 7.1: public opinion and policymaking

15:30-16:30 Session 8.1: Panel, longitudinal and national monitoring surveys in policymaking

15:30-16:30 Session 9.1: Public opinion and policymaking

15:30-16:30 Session 10.1: Political behaviour and survey research

15:30-16:30 Session 11.1: New sources of information on public opinion, news media and political behaviour

15:30-16:30 Session 12.1: New technologies and national surveys

16:30-17:00 Coffee Break

17:00-18:30 Panel 252: Big data and new methodologies

17:00-18:30 Panel 209: Public opinion research

17:00-18:30 Panel 176: Political behaviour

19:00-20:00 WAPOR National Representatives Meeting

October 7

14:00-15:00 Session 1.2: Challenges of comparative research

14:00-15:00 Session 2.2: Methodological Challenges in Survey Research

14:00-15:00 Session 3.2: News media and public opinion

Anastasia Kazun (Higher School of Economics)

14:00-15:00 Session 4.2: Political behaviour and survey research

15:30-16:30 Session 5.2: New sources of information on public opinion

15:00-15:30 Coffee Break

15:30-16:30 Session 5.2: New sources of information on public opinion

15:30-16:30 Session 7.2: Public opinion and policymaking

15:30-16:30 Session 9.2: Public opinion and Survey research

T

15:30-16:30 Session 10.2: Political behaviour and survey research

15:30-16:30 Session 11.2: Cross-cultural Survey Research

16:30-17:00 Coffee Break

17:00-18:30 Panel 129: Part I: Challenges for comparative research

17:00-18:30 Panel 356: Challenges of comparative research

17:00-18:30 Panel 266: Political behaviour

19:00-20:00 WAPOR Award Ceremony

October 8

14:00-15:00 Session 1.3: Survey research application

14:00-15:00 Session 2.3: Public opinion and Survey research

14:00-15:00 Session 3.3: News media and public opinion

15:00-15:30 Coffee Break

15:30-16:30 Session 7.3: Public opinion and Survey research

15:30-16:30 Session 8.3: Political behaviour and survey research

15:30-16:30 Session 9.3: Public opinion and Survey research

16:30-17:00 Coffee Break

17:00-18:30 Panel 129: Part II: Challenges for comparative research

17:00-18:30 Panel 310: Public opinion research and political behaviour

17:00-18:30 Panel 32: Cross-National Perspectives on Political Polarization

19:00-20:00 Joint Plenary: "How Violence Shapes Public Opinion for Generations."
Key Speaker: Prof. Noam Lupu (Vanderbilt University. Associate Director de LAPOP)